

God is Water

When I look into your eyes there's a face I can't recognize though it looks like me.

When I look into your soul
There's a peace I need to know
And then I walk away

When I look into your mind there's a depth I dive inside
I lose myself this way.

When I look into your soul
there's a love I long to know please just let me stay.

Everytime I need to see who is on my side
I look around and you're the only one I find

God is Water, life is pain
Drink it up and rise again
There's one truth that seems to be
That we'll fight until our backs
Against sea

Till our backs against sea

When I look into the sky
It's only then that I realize
That I could fly away
When I finally start to see the strength and power inside me please just let me breathe

When I wander on my own the light and dark places I've roamed
I knew that you were there But wherever I may go you're the only one I know who always stays the same ----- (add an extra measure here hold out the Same Saaaaaame...)?

Everytime I need to see who is on my side

God is Water, life is pain
Drink it up and rise again
There's one truth that seems to be
That we'll fight until our backs
Against sea

Till our backs against sea

God is Water, life is pain

God is Water, life is pain

God is Water, life is pain

God is Water.
